

The telephone consumer protection act should be preserved and protected. I do not agree that it should be weakened.